The FARMERS CORNER
by RALPH H. TAYLOR
Executive Secretary
Agricultural Council of California

Old Marshal Petain, in his tragic epitaph of conquered France, wrote: "Our spirit of enjoyment was stronger than our spirit of sacrifice. We wanted to have more than we wanted to give. We tried to spare effort, and met disaster!"

Millions of Americans read that bitter requiem, when it was first pronounced, but perhaps we should all read it again—for there are forces at work in this country which threaten national disaster, if they are allowed to go unchecked.

There are racketeering labor unions which consider the collection of exorbitant dues from the workmen they are supposed to protect more important than the success of the nation preparedness program.

There are blind, stupid, selfish, mis-named leaders of labor who arrogantly disregard the public welfare—and the welfare of the men who follow them—by paralyzing the nation's industries with walkouts and strikes at a time when the survival of not only our democracy, but democracy the world over, depends upon the productivity of our fields and factories.

And there are other mis-called labor leaders who have succumbed to the blandishments and gold of the enemies and are willing to betray their men and their country for thirty pieces of silver.

At a time when America needs to profit from the lesson of France, we are face to face with conditions here which parallel, all too significantly, the conditions which brought disaster over there.

There are millions of honest, law-abiding, patriotic men in the American labor movement, who want to work for their country, so that their sons will not need to fight and die for it. But under the outrageous, un-democratic conditions which exist today, they are slugged or clubbed if they show up for work to help their nation in a period of emergency. They are threatened with being black-listed, so that they cannot obtain employment in any union shop; bricks are hurled through the windows of their homes and their families are terrorized. Police who attempt to help them have their cars overturned by gangsters of the racketeering unions. And even the President of the United States has to publicly admit and deplore the existence of Communist-control in many labor unions.

Isn't it time, perhaps, that the members of the State Legislature at Sacramento—and the members of Congress in Washington—read, again, Marshal Petain's story of the downfall of France?

Isn't it time that all real Americans—workers and employers alike—read, once again, that prophetic warning?

Isn't it time that we threw off the shackles of tyranny in our own country, if we are to be successful in stemming the tide of tyranny elsewhere?

The rank and file workmen of America, apparently, can't do the job alone, without inviting the kind of reprisals which have been blazoned in headlines all over the country for weeks past—beatings, knifings, death or critical injury.

But Congress and the Legislature and a few courageous public officials, backed up by public opinion, can do the job—and must, if this country is to prove to the world that America is still a democracy.

There are bills pending both in Washington and at Sacramento, which can take care of the situation—acts which will clean up labor's house and stamp out the racketeers and traitors who have infested it. There is little need here to discuss the specific measures, for our responsible authorities know what laws they need and how to get them—if they want them.

The need is for men with courage to act. This country can't be conquered by any totalitarian power, or combination of totalitarian powers, on the face of the earth—unless it is first made ready for conquest by its own apathy and indifference to the enemies within its gates.

The hour is already late. The time is here when we must make our decision. Let's have no bitter epitaph read over America!

DE MOLAY UNIT BIRTHDAY TO BE OBSERVED

Highway Patrol Chief Scheduled To Speak at Dinner On Friday Night

El Dorado Chapter, Order of De Molay, celebrates its fifteenth birthday on Friday evening at a dinner and meeting at the Masonic temple.

The dinner is open to all parents and other friends of the chapter and tickets may be obtained from chapter members. It is urged that any who have not obtained tickets do so promptly if they expect to attend the dinner, owing to the desirability of making adequate provision for all who may attend.

The dinner will be followed by an open meeting of the chapter at which the Majority Service degree will be conferred upon several of the members.

The dinner program will include a scheduled address by E. Raymond Cato, chief of the California Highway Patrol. Chief Cato accepted an invitation several weeks ago to address the meeting and promised at that time in the event an emergency arose to prevent his attendance, he would detail an assistant as his substitute to address the meeting.

The plan for the anniversary observance are being concluded for the chapter at the direction of Robert Woodward, acting master counselor, by a committee of which Bill Rupley is chairman.

Farm Meeting On April 25

Borrowing Opportunities Under FSA Will Be Told At Missouri Flat Hall

A meeting of all farmers of the county interested in learning more of the service facilities of the Farm Security Administration has been called under the auspices of the FSA to be held at the Missouri Flat Community Hall on Friday evening, April 25th.

Preparatory to announcing the general meeting, Wayne Phelps, assistant rural rehabilitation supervisor in this area, has been attending farm meetings in the county this month.

The meeting will have Roy Marks as chairman and the Farm Security Administration program will be presented by Glenn W. Studarus, rural rehabilitation supervisor of the Sacramento office.

Farm Advisor Ivan Lilley will speak on "El Dorado County Agriculture and the Extension Service."

Bob Donnell Earns Air Promotion

Bob Donnell, son of Mrs. Pearl Donnell, of Placerville, who began his aviation training at the Placerville airport, has been promoted to be an Assistant Flight Commander in the Royal Canadian Air Force.

Donnell went to Canada more than a year ago as an aviation instructor. It is understood that the promotion gives him an advancement in rating but makes no special change in his duties.

In a recent letter to his mother, Bob tells of being caught with a party of five including his wife, a fellow officer and his wife and the wife of another officer, in a blinding blizzard while traveling by car near Rivers, Manitoba.

The storm became so severe that the party abandoned the car and, after walking about one hundred yards, just happened to come upon a school house where they were marooned for five hours until the husband of the un-escorted lady in the party located them when the storm abated.

S. F. Lodgemen To Confer Third Degree Saturday

A meeting of El Dorado Lodge No. 26, F. & A. M., at the Masonic temple on Saturday evening, April 19, will be the occasion for conferring the Third Degree.

The degree will be conferred by members of Far West Lodge No. 673, F. & A. M., of San Francisco and the meeting will convene following a dinner scheduled at 6:30

QUEEN OF THE MAY at the annual county school Music Festival, to be held May 3 at the fair grounds, is Eltha May Brady, of Cave Valley School, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brady, of Cool.

MUSIC FESTIVAL ON MAY 3RD

County School Children Are Preparing For Second Annual Spring Gathering

With preparations well under way in nearly all schools of the county for the second annual School Music Festival, on Saturday, May 3, at the county fair grounds, it was announced during the week that Eltha May Brady, of Cave Valley school, has been chosen to be Queen of the May.

Eltha May is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brady, of Cool. According to Mrs. Mildred Wiley, county music supervisor, who is general chairman for the festival, the program will begin at 9:00 o'clock in the morning with a group of selections by the high school band under the direction of Chas. Ball, followed by the high school girls drill team under the direction of Miss Gertrude Saunders, also of the high school faculty.

The presentation, "Around the Maypole," an old English festivity in honor of the Queen of the May, given by the rural schools will follow. Other choruses, orchestras and bands will follow with the Placerville grammar school band completing the program and furnishing the music for the patriotic finale by all the ninety or more 8th grade girls in the county.

It is definitely to be an out-door affair and will be postponed if the weather is unfavorable, Mrs. Wiley states. This too, because the afternoon offers much of interest to the boys and girls who want to participate in various athletic events. The day will be in the nature of a picnic with parents and children bringing their lunches if they wish to remain for the afternoon.

MISS MARIAN ENZLER BRIDE OF ROGER M. REEVE IN BERKELEY RITES

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Mansfield Reeve are establishing their home in Berkeley following their marriage there on Thursday afternoon of last week.

Mrs. Reeve is the former Marian Enzler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Enzler, of Penobscot district, and a grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Miller, of this city. The ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives and close friends of the principals at the residence of the Rev. and Mrs. Lewis B. Hillis, in Berkeley, Rev. Hillis officiating.

Mr. Reeve is a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Reeve, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., and is an assistant in the botany department at the University where Mrs. Reeve is doing graduate study.

The bride was attended by Miss Elizabeth Truesdale as maid of honor and Jack Enzler, brother of the bride, was best man. The wedding service was followed by a reception honoring the couple at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Lynds, in Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeve are both Phi Beta Kappas and members of Sigma Chi.

F. L. Sayre, general manager of Sterling Lumber Company, was in Placerville Tuesday and Wednesday, from headquarters office in Oakland. Mr. Fred Spicer, manager of the company's local office reported that this is one of the official periodical visits, and said he was pleased with the local outlook.

4-H FUN NIGHT AT RESCUE ON SATURDAY

Annual Overnight Camp With Farm Bureau Set For June 21 And 22

Details were completed at the 4-H Council meeting on Wednesday evening at the Farm Advisor's office for the annual county-wide 4-H "fun night," which will be held Saturday night at Rescue Hall.

Plans for the night have been developed by the council under the leadership of the chairman, E. W. Fox, and the committee for Saturday night includes Clara Rank, Mrs. R. M. Gray and Vinton Veerkamp.

The "fun night" program is a recreation feature of the 4-H Club year, usually devoted to games and to the presentation of stunts developed by the various clubs. At the close of the evening, refreshments will be served and the 4-H Council announces with thanks that Lloyd Raffetto has contributed five gallons of ice cream toward the success of this part of the evening.

Other business of the 4-H Council meeting included setting of dates for the annual Farm Bureau 4-H Club overnight camp at Lake Tahoe, which will be held this year on June 21 and 22.

The 4-H Council will meet jointly with the county Farm Bureau directors on May 8 to institute arrangements for this annual joint outing.

HEARING OPENS IN WATER CASE

Judge Ray McIntosh, Of Sierra County, Presides; Dismissal Move Argued

Hearing opened Thursday morning in Superior Court in the matter of the El Dorado Irrigation District against the Pacific Gas & Electric Company, seeking an injunction to bar the company from interfering with a continuous flow of water from its forebay into the ditches of the district.

Judge Raymond McIntosh, of the Sierra County Superior Court, is presiding, Judge George H. Thompson being disqualified by reason of his residence within the water district.

The hearing opened with arguments on a motion to dismiss, entered by the defendant on Tuesday and these had not been completed up to the time of the noon recess.

The action was originated in a petition filed by the district about two weeks ago, praying for the injunction and for a temporary restraining order. The temporary restraining order was issued by Judge Thompson, who then set hearing for April 10 on the order to show cause why an injunction should not issue.

The April 10 hearing was continued one week until April 17, and on April 15 the motion to dismiss was filed.

The motion challenges the grounds on which the petition was brought and making reference to the rights and arrangements by which the parties to the action are governed in the matter of water distribution.

An affidavit by J. N. Spaulding, a company official, upon which the motion to dismiss is in part based, notes the absence of any water storage facilities in the district for water used by patrons of the district residing east of the Blakeley reservoir.

Local Bowlers Place In Lodi Tournament

Bill White has received a check or $10 and Lowell West has received a check or $9, representing sixth and eleventh prizes in the recent singles bowling tournament conducted at Lodi, in which there were 232 entries. The local legions stopped in Lodi enroute home from a Stockton tournament, and found there was a tournament on and so bowled their entry.

Dick Cornelson, formerly of the county's traffic officer's squad, was a visitor at the American Legion meeting Wednesday night.

LONDON REPORTS WAR'S HEAVIEST AIR ATTACK

British Declare Defense Lines In Greece Holding Firmly Against Nazi Offensive; Air Raid Casualties, Damage Are Severe

By HENRY T. GORRELL
United Press Staff Correspondent

ATHENS, (UP)—British sources tonight said the British defense lines in Greece had held at all points against furious German attacks. Greek newspapers said the battle of Greece still was undecided and "one cannot exclude all hope for amelioration of the situation."

LONDON BLASTED

LONDON, (UP)—Londoners came up fighting mad today after the heaviest Nazi air blast of the war and chalked on the walls of their shattered buildings furious demands to "Bomb Berlin Tonight."

Never had London been pounded as hard as in the attack which opened at mid-evening last night and continued its crashing course until the early hours before dawn today.

The toll of lives and property was great. Lord Stamp, one of Britain's foremost economists, and Lady Stamp were killed. It was feared that the Hon. W. Carlisle stamp, son and heir of Lord Stamp, also was killed. He had been residing with his parents.

Lord Auckland, 46, husband of the former Constance Caroline Hart of San Francisco, was another victim.

By UNITED PRESS
British and Greek troops hammered today at a German panzer thrust in mid-Greece while the great city of London dug itself out after an eight hour Nazi air attack, the worst of the war.

Allied and German troops appeared to be in action along most of the Greek front but the main battle raged just north of Kalabaka in the region of Grevena where the Germans were attempting to get a foothold on the main Greek railroads and highways leading to Athens.

Kalabaka is 175 miles northwest of Athens and is the head of an extensive network of railroads which covers central and southern Greece. There were mounting indications that despite its speed the German offensive in Yugoslavia was effected only with the fiercest fighting that Nazi troops have encountered since the start of the war.

Stories were told of instances in which Serb death battalions leaped upon tanks and tossed grenades through gun slits or emptied revolvers at the crew inside the machine. Serbs fought until waves of tanks arrived and blasted them with heavy guns.

The German night attack on London was described by the Nazis as a reprisal for the big British attack on Berlin last April 9.

London veterans of last fall's blitz agreed that the attack was the worst the city ever had been through. At the height of the attack fires were started faster than they could be dealt with by the defending services and newspapermen saw dead and injured lying in the streets. Casualties were known to be extensive.

Reports from Africa indicated the British may have halted progress of the swift German thrust into Egypt and toward the Suez Canal.

EAGLES AUXILIARY INITIATES ONE AT MEETING ON MONDAY NIGHT

Placerville Eagles Auxiliary, at its meeting Monday night, initiated one new member and received three applications for membership.

Mrs. Mary Merryman, president, was in charge. Miss Mary Ann Rohrer was initiated by the officers, all of whom wore pastel formal, and was presented with a rose bud corsage by Mrs. Edna Plummer.

Mrs. Plummer, Mrs. Irene Scaldi and Mrs. Ruth Alquist were named on the refreshment committee for April 25 card party and attention was directed to the plans to join with the aerie on the evening of April 28th, for their entertainment and refreshment hour.

Following the meeting, games were played and refreshments were served.

Taxes Delinquent If Unpaid Monday

The second installment of county taxes becomes delinquent if unpaid at the close of business on Monday, April 21st. Although the delinquency date, according to law, is April 20, the attorney general has ruled that since the date falls on Sunday, one day of grace is permitted. Tax Collector W. F. Truscott announces that his office will be open all day Saturday for the convenience of taxpayers. Ordinarily the tax collector's office, in common with other county offices, is closed Saturday afternoon.

WEATHER
Partly cloudy tonight, Friday; snow flurries above 5000 feet; little change in temperature.

NIMRODS WILL HAVE DINNER ON FRIDAY

340 Pounds Of Sea Food Ordered From Bay Area For Annual Dinner

The annual sea food dinner and membership meeting of the El Dorado Rod and Gun Club will be held Friday evening at Hotel Raffles with Tod Powell, whose column "The Woodsman" in the San Francisco Chronicle, is widely read by nimrods, as the guest speaker.

President Leo Barrett announced Thursday morning that three hundred forty pounds of sea food have been ordered for the dinner from Fisherman's Wharf, at San Francisco.

This included one hundred pounds of halibut, one hundred fifty pounds of clams, fifty pounds of prawns and forty pounds of crab meat.

The report of the nominating committee and the election of officers, and consideration of pending legislation relative to fishing and hunting will be the chief business matters.

In addition to the address by Mr. Powell, the club also will have a talk by Bryan Curtis, of the fish and game department, and motion pictures for the duck hunters to complete the program.

Opportunity will be afforded at the meeting for renewal of membership in the club for the new year.

John Barton Is Called Tuesday

Latrobe Native Will Be Laid At Rest Friday In Rites At Folsom Chapel

John Barton, 78, a native and for most of his life a resident in the Latrobe district, passed away on Tuesday at Sacramento.

The funeral services will be held Friday morning at ten o'clock from the Miller mortuary chapel at Folsom. Rev. A. A. Kyburz will officiate. Interment will be at Latrobe cemetery.

Mr. Barton is survived by his wife, Mrs. Belle Barton, one son, Lloyd Barton, of Sacramento; and four brothers, William and Lester, of near Folsom; George, of Wheatland, and James, of Gerber.

During his active life, Mr. Barton was interested in the livestock business and in ranching and for many years was employed by the Cello interests at Lake Valley in connection with their dairy business.

BOOKS FOR JUNIORS FEATURE RECENT ADDITIONS TO CITY-COUNTY LIBRARY

In a report of books recently added to the shelves at the city-county library, volumes intended for junior readers are more numerous than the books for older patrons of the library.

Older boys and girls, and perhaps some adults, too, will be interested to know that the library has recently acquired a Spanish-English dictionary and also a French-English dictionary.

The junior books include: "Tales of a Swiss Grandmother," by Frances Carpenter; "Walking on Gold," by Phyllis Crawford; "The Trail Driver," by Zane Grey; "Horses I Have Known," by Will James; "Call of the Mountains," by Cornelia Meigs; "The Rails Push West," by Marian McDonough; "Winged Feet," by Gertrude Robinson; "Go Ahead, Garrison," by A. A. Schecter; "Trail E. Camp," by Ernest Thompson Seton, and "Terhune's Greatest Dog Story," by Albert P. Terhune.

May's Plumbing Shop To Move Next Door

Mr. and Mrs. Harold May of May's Plumbing Shop, announced this week that they have rented the Bert Frey Building, which is located next door to their present store, and that they will commence moving as soon as the building has been remodeled and put in readiness. Workmen are now busy on these plans and Mr. May said they will open in the new store about May 15.

SYNOPSIS

Somewhat bemused from her meeting with the sophisticated, charming, and very rich Mr. Wyn, who is a successful business man, she gradually comes to love him. But when she discovers that he is a playboy, she is shocked and tries to break off the engagement. However, she finds that she is too late, for he has already married her.

If you let your mind go it certainly takes you places. I'm going to quit talking to women. Maybe it's because the cosmetic business keeps me tied up with females all the time. But I get fed up with the screwy way things are going, and some of the White Collar Girls are starting to wonder. I used to smile when I saw nuns and sisters going around in their robes. I was sorry for them, though they must be unhappy; hoped they were something pretty and sheer underneath so as not to forget they're still female. But maybe that's what they want to forget. Maybe they're just as sorry for the rest of us. They've quit thinking and started believing. Maybe they've got something there. Wyn could always help me when I got this way. I see it now, Wyn's happy because he believes; he doesn't think. He's a kind of nun himself; monk, I mean. He obeys the rules of his Order. He takes the vows of the Main Line or Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia Proper. He doesn't question them; just accepts.

This was a good Milkman's Matinee, even if it'd turn to cheese if he overheard us. God bless Molly, her good egg sense helps me more than she knows. She says not to take the New York jitters too hard; New York always gets panicky too quick. She says remember the old Midwest, with its feet planted in corn and manure. She was glad I picked out an apartment on Riverside. At first she was a bit ruffled by race prejudice, but I got quite a kick out of it. They're so different from the Main Line. I might even marry one of them. They think about the future and they're good on the fiscal end. I told Marcus Eisen, you know you'll be miserable if you don't marry a girl called Shirley and he said "I can't marry the whole Upper West Side."

Honestly, I'd rather have one window looking across the Hudson toward America than a whole pent house over on East River where people have to live to remind themselves how well bred they are. When I get home about sunset I like to think of Molly hiking up Michigan Ave. and across the old bridge and by the Bur Trader tablet and the Wrigley Bldg. I know that even if she gets the jitters too she'll snap out of it. She never fell for anyone quite the way I did.

CHAPTER XI

I was scared—he didn't call me that once a year. I thought maybe he was taken ill again and ran out on the landing. He looked up with his beard bristling. "Are you deaf?" "I'm sorry, Pop, I was working. Are you all right?" "I'm fine. I want to know how you spell Katherine."

"The regular way. What's the idea?" "Somebody wants to know." Of course it seems ridiculous to me now, but while I was at Manitou I flirted with the idea of spelling my name Kathryn. I guess it had a sort of moon pitcher touch. Pop and Mac had been kidding me about it and finding so many Kathryns and Cathryns at the Business School. I wondered why Pop was bringing it up now.

"Who wants to know?" I asked, but he had gone back in the Front Room. I looked out the window and saw a weathered old station wagon, and painted on the side of it in small green letters DARYL MILL, OLD ST. DAVIDS. In the car were some big piles of shingles baled up with wire. Pop had been saying for I don't know how long that we must get new shingles for the backhouse roof. I supposed he ordered some without telling me, and ran downstairs just to see he wasn't getting cheated.

"Is that the man for the backhouse?" "I said I went into the room. Pop cackled with laughter and the visitor rose politely. I could feel my pure and eloquent blood doing its stuff. It was Wyn.

"It's Wyn Strafford again," said Pop. "He didn't want to interrupt your work, but he heard the hell of a pace you go on that machine and he wondered if you'd like to type the cricket book."

"I was going to write you a letter," said Wyn. He was a little pink himself, but he always so beautifully bromy you'd scarcely notice it. "You sounded so busy."

Home Appliance Show Announced

Special Two-Day Occasion
Opens On Friday Morning
At The Sportsman's Shop

Here's good news for homemakers!

Don Goodrich of the Sportsman's Shop, General Electric dealer, will hold a "Home Appliance Exposition" at his store in the Masonic Temple building, Friday and Saturday of this week.

The "exposition" will consist of a complete showing of the full line of G-E home appliances, a beautiful array of gleaming white porcelain, featuring eight models in refrigerators, four models in electric ranges (including the new strato-lineer, G-E's ultra modern kitchen equipment); water heater; all-metal kitchen cabinet units; five models in vacuum cleaners; and a host of smaller appliances, such as coffee makers, toasters, roasters, lamps, etc.

According to the announcement opportunity will be given to see all of the modern home appliances in actual operation. Continuous cooking demonstration daily from 10:00 a. m. to 5 p. m. will be under the direct supervision of Miss Margaret Fenner, home counselor in the Sacramento Division of the Pacific Gas & Electric Co. Her assistant will be Mrs. Ann Smith.

Homemakers are invited to bring their problems to these outstanding home economists, who will be happy to assist in any way.

In concluding his announcement Mr. Goodrich points out that during the two-day event he is offering prizes, free gifts, and surprises.

Robert Richard Wilson Dead At Sacramento

A statistical announcement in a Sacramento paper reports the death there Sunday, April 13, of Robert Richard Wilson, Sr., and asks that Placerville papers copy the notice.

Funeral services for Mr. Wilson will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon from East Lawn chapel, in Sacramento.

Mr. Wilson was a native of Arkansas, aged 71 years. He was the father of Althea J. Watson, Katie-lee Browning, Alan and Robert Wilson, Jr., all of Sacramento.

HOME COUNSELOR for the Sacramento Division of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, Miss Margaret Fenner will be in charge of the "Home Appliance Exposition" being conducted Friday and Saturday of this week by Don Goodrich at The Sportsman's Shop. Home makers are invited to visit the store and consult with Miss Fenner.

Harry Mitchell Wed Last May Former Placerville Boy And His Bride Completing Studies At Stanford

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mitchell, formerly of Placerville and for several years resident at San Francisco, are learning this Spring of the marriage almost a year ago of their elder son, Harry Mitchell. The ceremony was performed on May 31, last year.

Mrs. Mitchell is the former Miss Mary Watterick, daughter of City Engineer and Mrs. Vincent Watterick, of Los Angeles, and she and her husband are completing their junior years at Leland Stanford University this year and expect to return to school for their degrees next year.

Mrs. Mitchell is majoring in art, while her husband is majoring in aeronautical engineering.

This last will be of special interest to the friends who remember the interest manifest by Harry in making model airplanes.

Aside from his college study, Harry has received his pilot's license and has completed the advanced training and the instructor's course in aviation, with a total of 130 hours of flying to his credit in the Civil Aeronautics Authority ratings.

NEWS PERSONALS

Sheriff George M. Smith and District Attorney Henry S. Lyon returned Wednesday night from Los Angeles, bringing with them Kenneth Paul West, alleged to have issued worthless checks locally in the amount of $150. Mr. Lyon reported West also is charged with issuing worthless checks at San Francisco, and was serving a Los Angeles jail term for petty theft immediately before being taken into custody by the local officers.

"Chief," one of the oldest of the pet deer of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Timm at their deer park at Kelsey, was shot in the leg recently and, it is feared, may die.

AMERICAN LEGION POST WILL SPONSOR RODEO EARLY IN JUNE

If present plans materialize, as announced at a regular meeting of the Post Wednesday night, the El Dorado County American Legion organization will sponsor a Carnival, a horse show, a "kids day," and a real old fashioned wild west rodeo, some time during the first part of June. Dr. L. J. Anderson has been named chairman of a special committee and the post voted to go ahead with the plans as outlined Wednesday night, and to set dates for the big show that would not conflict with graduation week of the county high school and the Placerville grammar school.

Cecil Barker, 1st Vice Commander and chairman of the Legion's membership drive, announced that the Post is over the top with 164 paid up members and that it should reach 170 by the end of this week.

Sam Hern chairman of the Americanism's committee essay contest among the pupils of the Placerville grammar school and the rural schools of the county, announces that all the essays are now in the hands of the committee and that judging will start this Thursday night.

Named thus far in the judges group are Harold Morehouse, B. E. Larson, M. E. Wright, Mance H. Vaught and Sam Hern. It is estimated that there are more than 150 essays to be judged. Medals are awarded by the American Legion for the best essays in the rural group and for the best in the Placerville group. Award winner will be announced early next week the chairman indicated.

Two big event nights have been planned for next month, Paul Taylor, entertainment chairman, indicated. A 6:30 feed followed by a regular meeting in honor of one of the comrades who is leaving, on May 7; and a past commanders' night and dinner, at Shingle Springs on May 21st.

GOLFERS MEET JACKSON HERE SUNDAY FOR FIRST OF TOURNAMENT SERIES

Local golfers will participate in the first of a series of home-and-home tournaments Sunday, April 20, when a team from Jackson meets the Placerville players here. This is according to M. T. Kelly, chairman of the golf club's tournament committee, who also stated a return match will be played on the Jackson course May 25th.

On April 27, according to club president Ben Larson, Placerville golfers will participate in Mother Lode Tournament at Sonora.

The fairways and greens, under the care of Ronald Cook, are in excellent condition, the greens committee stated. All grass on the fairways has been mowed and undesirable hazards removed.

These were Annie Jaeger, Marshall Dunkum, Frank Ghigliotti, Robert Johnson, Edward Thole, Mary Veerkamp and Egbert Veerkamp.

During the business meeting, committees were appointed for card parties at the Coloma I. O. O. F. hall on May 6, and at the Coloma Community Hall on May 24. Cards followed the lodge meeting.

Mrs. Phileas Cote, who has been ill for some time at her home, was removed on Tuesday to Placerville Sanatorium for continued treatment of her increasingly serious illness.

Wm. C. Pearson Rites Thursday

Resident Near Snowline Found Dead At Home On Tuesday Morning

The funeral services for William Christopher Pearson, 86, who was found dead at his residence east of Snowline CCC camp on Tuesday morning, were held Thursday afternoon from Memory Chapel.

The Rev. Harold Morehouse was in charge. Burial was at Union Cemetery.

Mr. Pearson was the father of Mrs. Mabel Johnson, of Placerville, and Oliver Pearson, of the Snowline district.

He was found dead at his home Tuesday morning when it was noticed that an electric light which had burned throughout the night, was still burning after daylight.

Mr. Pearson's body was in a chair, his spectacles raised above his eyes, and a newspaper laying nearby, leading to the supposition that he suffered a heart attack as he sat down to read the paper. He had been treated by a physician for an unsatisfactory heart condition sometime previously.

Deceased was a native of Cecil County, Maryland, born April 1, 1855, resident in California since 1914 and a plasterer and bricklayer by trade. He had lived in the Cedar Grove district since 1937.

SETH BEACH BOWLS 278 GAME TO BECOME HIGH MAN IN COUNTY KEGLERS

Perhaps the most important item of bowling interest during the week is the record of Seth Beach, bowling in the Timber League Wednesday night, when he turned in a high game score of 278.

Beach's score displaces the 266 bowled recently by Lowell West and makes him high man on the local alleys.

Curtis Coppin, secretary of the bowling association, says there are, perhaps, fifteen bowlers in Sacramento who have a similar score to their credit and, by way of indicating the unusual interest with which bowlers regard the performance, hazards the guess that the mark will stand for at least six months as high score on the local alleys.

Beach spared on his first frame and followed up with nine straight strikes, getting nine pins on his last ball. In other words, after his first frame, he made the maximum score possible except that he missed one pin on his last fall.

He was bowling with the Native Sons, who took three games from Snowline in their Timber League tilt. Beach's score for the match was 163-137-278-578.

Camino dropped two games out of three in their match with Murphys and California Door won three from Placerville Lumber Company.

Elmer Wheeler Visits Coast

Sacramento Ad Club To Present Sales Expert In Address Wednesday Night

Elmer Wheeler, of New York, whose phenomenal sales direction is the talk of the merchandising world, is visiting the Pacific Coast and will be presented in an address under the auspices of the Sacramento Advertising Club at the Sacramento Junior College auditorium on next Wednesday evening, April 23.

Wheeler is the man to whom business men of the nation paid $50,000 in one year for only five merchandising ideas.

The Texas Company, alone, paid Wheeler $5,000 for a nine-word sales idea which tripled the oil company's business, and the plan is still being used by the oil company.

Billed as "The Master Magician of Words," Mr. Wheeler will explain and demonstrate how the choice of words contributes to or detracts from successful merchandising in an address that is intended to be of importance not only to business men and executives, but to all employees whose work brings them into contact with the public.

The Sacramento Ad Club announces a charge of sixty cents per seat for Mr. Wheeler's address, with blocks of ten tickets available at fifty cents per ticket.
